Summary:

My periods were extremely heavy and irregular, often lasting for more than a week. I had to deal with severe abdominal cramps that prevented me from handling household chores. After my friend recommended Saukhyam reusable pads, I decided to make a complete switch. Within a few months, my cramps reduced significantly, and the duration of my heavy flow returned to a healthy 4-5 days. The absence of synthetic chemicals in Saukhyam pads has improved my overall energy levels during periods.
