Chronic Rashes and Recurring UTIs Permanently Resolved

Summary:

Before switching to Saukhyam, I regularly suffered from painful rashes, skin peeling, and recurring urinary tract infections (UTIs) caused by plastic disposable napkins. Since making the switch to Saukhyam eight years ago, these issues have been completely eliminated. The natural banana-fiber core is highly breathable, preventing bacterial growth and skin irritation. My period cramps have also decreased, making my cycles comfortable and stress-free.
